RAMP is a selection site for Free Amplified Phones for People who are Hard-of-Hearing

October 28, 2009 – Through the Deaf/Hard of Hearing services, all four RAMP offices have an Illinois Telecommunications and Access Corporation (ITAC) selection center. ITAC, at no cost to the consumer, will provide a free amplified telephone. There are no age or income restrictions. ITAC programs are required and governed by Illinois law www.itacty.org. It is easy to qualify for a free ITAC telephone and simple to do. To qualify you must:

- Be a legal resident of Illinois
- Have your doctor or audiologist sign off that you are indeed hard-of-hearing
- Have a standard land line at your residence

You can obtain an ITAC application and try the amplified phones at any of these RAMP locations:
